S. P. Dunham & Co.

12½c Albatross Waist Flannels, 7c.

And a better assortment than we have had at any time even at 12½c. Another instance of very fortunate buying. We couldn't repeat the purchase today, though. Light grounds, with relief bars, stripes and group ings of hair lines, most of them with white grounds, dainty, pretty things, look like French flannels that sell for 5c. Right for house gowns, dressing sacques, waists, kimonas and the like.

Darl Eclip e Persian pattern flannelettes, yard wide, that were 19c, 10c.
10c mercerized sateens, in navies, blues, pinks, purples and grays, 30 in. wide, 7 cents.
Swansdown for dressing sacques, kimonas, robes and general house wear, polka dots and figures, 15c.
38 in. all wool granite cloths, that were 50c, 29c.
40 in. all wool habit cloths, all colors and black, 3 c.

The New Materials for Waists.

Seen them? They are mercerized they look like silk-vestings that men wear that cost half a dozen times more than these. Swivel weaves, shotted kinds, narrow and broad bars, like nothing nearer than high priced silk and wool vesting for men—75c and 89c.

All shades French flannels, 59c.
A score of styles in imported lace work embroidered albatrosses and nuns veilings, 7 c to 85c.
Panne satin cloths, two and three tones, ribbon stripes and embroidery effects combined, 75c and 85c.

And Here Are the Stuffs for Tailormade Gowns.

Much depends upon just the right stuffs for the right kind of a tailor-made gown. Your tailor can be ever so expert, he can scarce get results with materials that are not firm enough to hold the shape in which he makes them. These are just the right kinds:

54 in. steam shrunk cheviots, all colors, 75c and $1.00.
54 in. Z belines $1.25.
54 in. imported worsted cheviots, mannish weights and kinds, $1.50.
54 in. imported black satin finished cheviots, $1.50.
54 in. shotted hopsackings, extra heavy, $1.00.
54 in. invisible striped frosted zebelines, $1.50.
54 in. shotted and checked English cassimeres $1.25.
54 in. imported and checked and mixed homespuns, $1.00 to $2.00.

Book for Piano Buyers

"How to Buy a Piano" is the title of a book published to aid in the selection of a perfect instrument. This volume, figuratively speaking, takes the piano apart and affords the reader a ready knowledge of its mechanism, construction and operation. With this information, together with the other instructive data, the buyer has a fund of facts that makes piano selection easier. A copy of the book may be obtained free by writing to Blasius & Sons, 1101, 1103 and 1110 Chestnut St., Phila.

LANGHORNE.

Mrs. Harry Milnor has returned from a week's visit to Brooklyn.

Mrs. Mahlon H. Sisty, of Yardley, has been visiting her many friends here.

Silas Tomlinson, of Philadelphia, was a recent visitor of Dr. Henry Lovett.

Charles Estell has moved into the Permelia Leech property on Bellevue avenue.

Miss Emma Zugg, of Pittsburg, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Theodore F. Phillips.

A. Haller Gross is making improvements in the interior of his beautiful residence.

Mrs. Permelia Conrad, of Philadelphia, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. William Marple.

Miss Lily H. Ridge is pursuing a course in dress-making at the Drexel Institute, Philadelphia.

Amos Flower and family, of Crammer's Hill, N. J., spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives here.

Horace P. Fry, of the Pennsylvania University Faculty, was visiting friends in Langhorne on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tomb are visiting relatives in Williamsport, expecting to tarry till after Thanksgiving.

The Young Friends will meet Friday at Mrs. Alfred Marshall's when an interesting programme will be rendered.

The new telephone at the Reading R. R. station proves a great accommodation both to the tardy traveller and also to the forgetful one.

Howard Reifsnyder offered to the borough a lot, corner of Flowers and Pine street, also $125 towards the erection of the new fire house.

Prof. Charles Breed, of the Lawrenceville College, will speak in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday evening. The address will be more particularly to the young people.

Joseph Elkington will give an illustrated lecture on the Doukhobers at the Sorosis Club headquarters on North Bellevue avenue, the 29th of November. Admission 25 cents, children 15 cents.

The primary division of the M. E. Sunday school will give an entertainment in the lecture room tomorrow evening. The children have been under the instruction of a proficient kindergartener and will prove very entertaining. A silver offering will be taken for the benefit of the building fund.

NEWPORTVILLE.

Israel Hackman badly sprained his arm last week.

Mrs. Lina Goslin was visiting near Fallsington on Saturday.

John Deenihen, of Yardley, was visiting William Deenihen and wife last week.

George Hamm was given a birthday surprise party on Wednesday evening of last week.

John Balt and wife, and Henry Baker and wife were Sunday visitors in this place.

Jasper Lorimer, of China Lane, is a candidate for Supervisor of West Bristol township.

The Republicans of West Bristol township are still on top, having given a majority for the legislative, Congressional and county candidates, despite the Mayne, Allen and Mintzer combination.

Jesse C. Everitt was elected Clerk of Orphans' Court by 86 majority over his Republican opponent. He is the strongest candidate the Democrats could have placed on the ticket, his personality winning him many votes throughout the county. He is well and favorably known around this section of the county and no doubt will fill his office with credit and ability.

PRESERVING TIME.

Said Mr. Baldwin Apple
To Mrs. Bartlett Pear:
"You're growing very plump, madam,
And also very fair.

"And there's Mrs. Clingstone Peach
So mellowed by the heat
Upon my word she really looks
Quite good enough to eat.

"And all the Misses Crabapple
Have blushed so rosy red
That very soon the farmers' wife
To pluck them will be led.

"Just see the Isabellas!
They're growing so apace
That they really are beginning
To get purple in the face.

"Our happy time is o'er
For Mrs. Green Gage Plum
Says she knows unto her sorrow
Preserving time has come."

"Yes," said Mrs. Bartlett Pear,
"Our day is almost o'er,
And soon we shall be smothering
In syrup by the score."

And before the month was ended
The fruits that looked so fair
Had vanished from among the leaves
And the trees were stripped and bare.

They were all of them in pickle,
Or in some dreadful scrape.
"I'm cider," sighed the apple:
"I'm jelly," cried the grape.

They were all in jars and bottles
Upon the shelf arrayed,
And in their midst poor Mrs. Quince
Was turned to marmalade.

ATTLEBORO.

Mrs. F. Wright, of New Brunswick, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Wall.

Misses Bessie and Edith Wenlock are home on a visit to their parents for a stay of two weeks.

A bazaar will be held on December 6th in aid of the funds for St. James' Mission, Eden.

Mr. and Mrs. Prichard, of Trenton, have been visiting their son, John Prichard, of this borough.

Edward Wenlock wishes to return thanks to his neighbors and friends who worked so willingly and energetically to save his stock.

Our energetic young townsman, John Reese, who is superintendent of a gang of workmen for the Bell Telephone Company is at present working in South Jersey.

We are pleased to say there is a prospect of a brighter winter for some of our townspeople judging by the rattle of the black diamonds which we begin to hear on all sides.

The Council of Pocahontas held a social and masquerade party on Saturday last. It was well attended and was a financial success, which is very encouraging to the team and council.

Our borough was startled by the cry of fire on Monday evening when Edward Wenlock's barn was totally destroyed. A crowd quickly gathered but owing to the lack of water the fire made rapid headway and little could be saved except the live stock. About 150 bushels of potatoes and 50 cwts. of hay were destroyed, besides tools and implements. There was no insurance.

Ethel: "Do you think George was struck by my beauty?" Clara: "I hardly think he was severely injured."

News of the County

Special Correspondence from Near-by Towns

DOYLESTOWN.

The official count of the election returns has been made by the court and the figures are rather aggravating in one respect. The small majorities of some of the Democratic candidates shows what a little more work on the part of Republicans would have accomplished. The Democrats got out of it about all there was to get but Republicans might have secured a few more voters had they not felt so confident. Speaking of this there has seldom been an election in which both sides were so surprised. While they do not admit it now, there were quite a number of leading Democrats here who had lost all hope of electing any candidate with the possible exception of Smith, and they saw little chance for him. All sorts of reasons are advanced in explanation of Democratic success but none of them justify the wholesale desertion of the party that took place. And there is little question but that many Republicans who voted the whole Democratic ticket regret it. There was no reason why Radcliffe should have been defeated and the many expressions of sympathy for him indicate that things would be different could the battle be fought again. A majority of Republicans regard the party defeat not as the result of bossism that was mercenary and corrupt, as has been charged, but lack of judgment in support of candidates. In other words the result did not justify the severe injury the party has sustained. In the light of what has transpired in the State at large there is no question but that many Republicans who cut their tickets are sorry. In the end it may be of advantage to the party. Republicans will look back with pride upon the clean record the party made in the administration of county offices, while the leaders will avoid that which may have even the semblance of interference with party will. Thus there is promise of regaining the ground lost in this election. The official count shows that the votes and the majorities of the various candidates were as follows:

For the Democratic candidates on the so-called Ballot Reform and Union party tickets the votes ranged from 118 to 166 for the former and from 14 to 31 for the latter. Taken altogether it was a peculiar result showing how perverse is human nature. For instance an active canvass of the county enabled some Democrats to win while Republicans who made little or no effort to secure votes were elected. Yet there was method and motive underlying all this madness except perhaps in the case of Rice and Edwards. Here fate decreed that the reformers should be made to appear in a rather ridiculous light for comparing the records of the two men there is no question but that that of Rice will bear closer inspection from the reformer's standpoint. However, Edwards evidently made up in capacility and personal popularity what Rice lacks, but that doesn't make the latter's defeat easier to bear. Now that the contest is settled Republicans have accepted the inevitable and while preparing for the next battle will note with interest how affairs will be conducted by the Democratic party so far as it will be in control.

The leading physicians of the county had a pleasant meeting here last week when the annual meeting of the Bucks County Medical Society took place. There was the usual discussion of professional topics. The following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: President, Dr. Evan J. Groom; Vice Presidents, Drs. O. B. Smith and William S. Erdman; Scretary and Treasurer, Dr. A. F. Myers.

Endorsement of Speer's Wine by the Faculty of N. Y.

Dr. Cyrus Edson, of New York Board of Health, says there is no better wine in the world. Speer's Port is especially valuable in many cases of weakness, debility, etc.

"I have noticed that babies always have very open countenances." "Yes; especially about midnight."

John Rankins, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with Abraham Shaw and family.

Miss Ella Balm, of Bensalem, spent Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. George Hansom.

Prof. F. O. Batt, of Edgewood, was a visitor of Miss Mabel Sheppard one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bicking were visiting John LaRue and family, near Emilie, over Sunday.

Mrs. Ewald Reetz spent a few days the fore part of the week in Philadelphia with her sister.

Edward Morgan and family, of Langhorne, spent Sunday with Mrs. Witham and daughters.

George McEwen and family, of Bristol, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Thomas Goheen.

Mrs. George Dunlap, of Newportville, spent last Thursday with her sister, Mrs. William Douglass.

Miss Olive Harrison, of the West Chester Normal School, is home for a few weeks on a vacation.

Mrs. Benjamin Tharp and daughter spent Friday in Bristol with Mr. and Mrs. William McCoy, Sr.

Miss Margaret Henry, of Philadelphia, was visiting Ewald Reetz and family on Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Brelsfod, of Middleton cross-roads, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Douglass.

Henry Palmer, coal and lumber dealer at Langhorne station, is delivering coal about town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Forker, of Bristol, spent Sunday with Mrs. Forker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Douglass.

Kunkle, the Attleboro coal dealer, delivered buckwheat coal at Ewald Reetz's hair cloth factory on Saturday.

Mrs. Sarah Roberts and her son, Howard, spent Sunday in Philadelphia with her daughter, Mrs. John Stuard.

Edwin Henry, who recently rented Hibbs' store property, arrived here with his family from Readfield, Maine, on Friday.

Mrs. Henry Parson, who was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Metler, in Trenton, for several days, returned home last week.

Walter Smith, of Elizabeth, N. J., and Miss Lulu Smith, of Pennington, N. J., spent Saturday and Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Robert Smith.

Mrs. Maria Doyle and Edward Gaffney, of Philadelphia, and Thomas Gaffney, of Cranford, N. J., spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Catherine Gaffney.

Isaac Vanartsdalen, Esq., of Doylestown, and Mrs. Warner Martindell, of Oxford Valley, were Sunday visitors of Prof. and Mrs. Edward Martindell.

Neshamony Lodge, No. 422, I. O. O. F., conferred the first degee on Samuel J. Illick on Saturday night and on next Saturday will confer the second degree.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Parks, of Trenton, Mr. and Mrs. George Brelsford, of Attleboro, and Mr. and Mrs. William C. Vansant, of Bensalem, were Sunday visitors of Howard Vansant and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Douglass and family were in Bristol on Saturday attending the funeral of their gandson, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Forker, who died on Wednesday of last week.

The funeral services of Mrs. Martha Keen were held at Beechwood Cemetery on Thursday last. Mrs. Keen was formerly a resident of Hulmeville, but of late had been living at Dolington, Pa.

Do not forget the variety social to be given by the Epworth League on Saturday evening. There will be a fancy table, cake, ice cream and candy and they will also serve chicken salad, oysters and a variety of other edibles.

Fricke & Co. were obliged to close down the old mill at 5 p. m. instead of 6.15 p. m. the latter part of last week on account of the dynamo burning out at closing time on Tuesday night. The firm has laid in a supply of coal and cotton last week. Joseph Lenike, the Attleboro liveryman, had two teams hauling cotton.

Mrs. Witham and daughters left Hulmeville this week for the winter, Mrs. Witham going to Doylestown, Miss Florence to Trenton, and Miss Lillie to Washington, D. C. E. J. Bicking has rented their home for the next month while the damage to his own home, caused by the fire last week, is being repaired.

The schools were closed on Wednesday afternoon of last week to enable the teachers and also the senior class of the high school to attend a lecture at the George school, near Newtown, by Ernest Seton-Tompson, the subject being animals. Mr. Seton-Tompson at one time lived in the west where he had ample opportunity to study the habits of the wild animals. The teachers and pupils left here on the 1.30 p. m. trolley and returned home about 7 p. m.

The Alumni Association of the Hulmeville High School held a literary meeting in the assemby room on Saturday evening. President, W. Kirk MacCorkle; Secretary, Miss Ethel Praul. The meeting was opened with an address by the president. A literary journal by Miss Olive M. Hibbs was very instructive. Recitations by Miss Mabel Sheppard and a solo by Miss Fannie Fassett were enjoyed by all. An interesting feature of the evening was a debate—Resolved, That the miners were justifiable in the recent strike. The participants were Clarence J. Buckman, Jesse G. Webster, Gertrude Everitt, Prof. E. O. Batt, of Edgewood, and others. Following the debate was an address by Isaac Vanartsdalen. Refreshments were served by the high school pupils.

Trust Those Who Have Tried.

I suffered from catarrh of the worst kind and never hoped for cure, but Ely's Cream Balm seems to do even that.—Oscar Ostrom, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill.

I suffered from catarrh; it got so bad I could not work; I used Ely's Cream Balm and am entirely well.—A. C. Clarke, 341 Shawmut Ave., Boston, Mass.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50 cts., or mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.

MORRISVILLE.

The canal company has been making extensive repairs to the Bridge street bridge.

While playing with a dog belonging to Morgan Rockhill, a young son of Barney Flanagan was severely bitten about the face. Dr. Woodman cauterized the wounds. Constable Peze killed the dog with a couple of well aimed bullets from his revolver.

There are prospects of a big building boom being started in Morrisville in the near future. E. D. Titus will build a number of dwelling houses on his lots on Delaware avenue. Dr. Woodman has purchased from James Lovett the lot opposite the P. R. R. station and will erect a store and dwelling at once. A. N. McLees has purchasd a portion of the lot and will erect a house and store.

A social was held at the home of William E. Margolf on Friday evening of last week by a large number of persons in the Morrisville Library Association. An excellent programme consisting of vocal and instrumental solos, readings, recitations and addresses was rendered after which refreshments were served. In the guessing contest as to the title of twenty-two pictures pinned on a curtain represented, Fay Horner, of Trenton, won the first prize, naming eighteen of the twenty-two correctly. Steps were taken looking to a permanent organization as the large increase in the number of volumes on the catalogue make it necessary that something be done in the way of providing a future home for the library.

John Brown, a negro, was committed to jail on Monday charged with aggravated assault and battery, with intent to kill D. Hoyle and Charles Pease, also negroes. A quarrel one week ago between Brown and Hoyle over a game of crap was renewed Sunday night, when, it is alleged, Hoyle produced a razor and flourished it close to Brown's head. The latter whipped out a revolver, and as he fired, Pease, who was in the crowd, stepped forward. The ball entered his groin, and he lies in a critical condition in St. Francis' Hospital, Trenton. Two more shots were fired in quick succession, which took effect in Hoyle's abdomen and leg. He was removed to the Hahnemann hospital, Philadelphia. Hoyle is not supposed to be dangerously injured. During the hearing on Monday a smile played over Brown's face, who expressed his regret that his victim, Hoyle, was still alive. Brown says Hoyle would have killed him at their first quarrel had his knife not broken. The prisoner was taken to jail by Constable Mason, of Morrisville, about 9 o'clock on Monday night.

TULLYTOWN.

Mahlon Lovett died at midnight on Sunday at his home at the fishery.

The price for first size potatoes has risen to sixty-two cents per bushel, wholesale, and seconds are selling at forty-five.

Warner Wright, Joseph and Elwood Leland and Frank Hogeland have taken a thirty-five mile trip up country to Point Pleasant, Pa.

The trolley track layers have broken borough soil and the townsfolk are feeling greatly elated. Property adjoining the Main street through which the new road passes will feel the boom directly by higher valuation. But one of the best effects of the trolley will be the encouragement to the people to brush themselves up a bit and to improve their homes. Farmers will reset the fences, trim the hedges, paint the houses and the barns, and repair the corncribs, while those living in the town proper will grade the sidewalks, mow the yards and keep their homes in neat condition.

On Saturday evening a wedding reception in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carlen was given by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carlen, at their home on Main street. Refreshments were served during the evening. Many beautiful and useful presents were received. Those present were: Howard I. Moon, Mrs. Theodore Burton, Mrs. Harrison Shaffer, Mrs. Rebecca Albertson, Mrs. W. Wallace White, Miss Frances Fabian, Mrs. Charles Carter, Miss Carrie Breece, Mrs. Mary E. Streeter, Joseph Swangler, Russell Garretson, Winfield and Lundy Sayers, Mrs. Elmer Minster and daughter, Mrs. James A. Swangler, Miss Anna Parr, Harry Carlen, John Burton, Jr., William B. Leigh, William Lovett, Henry Lovett, Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Moon, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cummons, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Garretson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cooper, Mrs. Maria Schiveiger, Mr. and Mrs. William Carlen, Miss Marion Lovett, Miss Carrie Carlen, Miss Sallie Eastburn and Mrs. Elwood Leland, of Tullytown; Tobias Louder, Miss Emma Fisher, Misses Susie and Lizzie Scott, Miss Lillie Frebe, of Bristol; Mrs. Washington R. Hughes and daughter, of Philadelphia.

To Harness Puyallup's Glacier.

Engineers are being sent from Boston to Tacoma and Seattle, to begin work on a project which has for its chief aim the harnessing of the waters of the Payallup glacier on Mount Tacoma, Washington, for commercial purposes. It is said that, if successful, this will be the first instance where glacial waters have been used directly to provide power. Stone & Webster, of Boston, who have installed a great many street railways in all parts of the country, are undertaking the work in order to provide Tacoma and Seattle with electric light and power. The plan is to construct from the glacier a flume fourteen miles long through which a head of water will flow sufficient to generate 50,000 horsepower. The water in running through the flume will drop six hundred feet and through penstocks will be diverted into turbines connected with electric generators. A three-phase alternating current will be transmitted at high voltage to Tacoma and Seattle.

Good Advice.

The most miserable beings in the world are those suffering from Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. More than seventy-five per cent of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness, palpitation of the heart, heartburn, water brash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. Get Green's Special Almanac. At J. Edward Wright's and Emlen Martin's drug stores, Bristol, and E. E. Johnson's, Tullytown.

Fine Hall for Rent.

Pythian Hall, Wood street, Bristol, has been handsomely renovated — newly papered and painted and a fine maple floor put down specially suitable for dancing. The hall will be rented for entertainments, suppers and dances. For terms apply to trustees, William H. Hall, Charles S. Wollard or Gustav Rathke.

Wife of funny man: "Oh, Bob! The baby has swallowed his rattle." "Well, he ought to have a rattling good time."

Edna: "What do you suppose makes Tom write such awfully gushing letters?" Kate: "Oh, I suppose he uses a fountain pen."

Mike: "Say, Pat, phwat is a water shpaniel?" Pat: "Sure he must be some riltiv av thim ocean grayhounds we read about."

YARDLEY.

Mrs. Wilson Large, of Philadelphia, was the guest of her son, Watson, this week.

Miss Ogleby, of Edgewood, spent some time with her friend, Miss Abrams, during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schofield, of Newtown, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Twining on Monday.

The race that leads to the mill is being put in good condition preparatory to the pumping of the water from the pond.

Miss Lillian Stackhouse, who is a student at the State Normal School, at West Chester, is at home on a short vacation.

The water pipes are nearly all laid, with the exception of a portion of the system in the southern part of the borough, which is not completed as the pipe has not yet arrived.

St. Andrew's Church has an Estey organ from Trenton on trial and the prospects are good for the purchasing of a new organ as the one that is now in the church is continually out of order.

The oyster supper given by the Episcopal Church was a success from every point of view as the repast was excellent, and as the church cleared about $130, this part of the affair was also pleasing.

The barn on the Temple farm above Taylorsville burned on Monday. The farm is in charge of Jefferson Scott, and it is believed that his little boy set the place on fire, as the question was asked his sister and she replied that "Willie did it."

Mrs. E. C. Smith attended the wedding of Walter N. Eastburn and Miss Isabel Stansbury, of Mt. Airy, Baltimore, Md., at the First Presbyterian Church, of Baltimore, on Tuesday afternoon at five o'clock. The father of the groom was also in attendance.

John S. Bennett, track walker, near Yardley, was severely hurt on the railroad the other day in his efforts to save two little children that had wandered out on the track. Mr. Bennet succeeded in getting the children off all right but was himself struck by the train and so badly hurt that he was taken to the Trenton hospital for treatment.

B. F. Graham, familiarly known as "Major" has the proud distinction of having walked 50,000 miles in the last twenty years, in connection with his duties of carrying the mail to and from the station, which is a mile from the postoffice, and which trip Mr. Graham takes four times a day. "Major" is strong and hearty and attributes this desirable state of heath to the great amount of walking he does.

The Methodist Church will give an entertainment in the hall next Saturday evening, that from all reports will be the best of kind for some time, as the talent that will paticipate have a reputation in this locality for their proficiency. Those that will help to entertain the audience are the Afton male quartette, Mrs. Walter Wareham, who will render several choice musical selections, Mrs. Charles M. Eames, who will pay a duet with Mrs. Wareham, and will recite. Miss Helen Swartzlander will sing for the edification of the audience, and several other ladies and gentlemen will lend their aid to make this affair a grand success.

The council met one evening last week and the regular business of the organization being transacted, Charles T. Eastburn petitioned the gentlemen to allow the new finishing works to exist ten years exempt from taxation. This request was granted and the supposition is that the work on the building, which is to be six hundred feet long and sixty feet wide will be begun in the near future as Mr. Eastburn has reopened the old quarry that is on E. W. Twining's place for the purpose of quarrying the stone at this point. This plant will be used for finishing leather. Several gentlemen of means are at the back of the concern.

"We'll Have to Go South Today!"

The Solution Of The Coal Question.

Now there is no coal in our cellar dark,
In the place where the coal ought to be;
It sells for only a dollar a piece,
And that's too expensive for me.
So we'll have to go South today,
We find there is no other way;
The edict's gone forth:
'We'll depart from the North!"
We'll have to go South today.

Wooden tooth picks cost only two dollars an ounce
And they do very nicely for fuel,
They burn very well, but they do not last long,
And then we begin to get cool.
So we'll have to go South today—
We find there is no other way,
The edict's gone forth:
"We'll depart from the North!"
We'll have to go South today.

The gas has gone up and it won't "turn down"
"Two dollars a thousand feet!!"
If a caller should come we will sit in the dark.
(Perhaps he will think it a treat)
But we'll have to go South today—
We find there is no other way
The edict's gone forth:
"We'll depart from the North!"
We'll have to go South today.

We have burnt up our furniture long ago
And our clothes are all following fast,
We won't be annoyed with a great many trunks,
For the suit we have on is the last.
So we'll have to go South today;
We find there is no other way
The edict's gone forth:
"We'll depart from the North!"
We'll have to go South today.

We gather around a small oil stove
And there we shiver and shake;
Our hands and feet are as cold as ice
For the stove's a contemptible fake!
Yes, we'll have to go South today.
We find there is no other way;
The edict's gone forth:
"We'll depart from North!"
We'll have to go South today.

If you have no money to pay your fare
You'll have to start and walk;
If you don't go soon you will freeze to death,
So you'd better not linger to talk.
For we'll have to go South today,
We find there is no other way;
The edict's gone forth:
"We'll depart from the North!"
We'll have to go South today.

Now just pack up your night-cap and "robe de nuit"
To carry or have them expressed;
And when you arrive if your funds are low,
Try hard to be somebody's guest.
For we'll have to go South today,
We find there is no other way.,
The edict's gone forth:
"We'll depart form the North."
We'll have to go South today.

The purchasing committee of the Fallsington Libary this week will expend $60 for new books.

While in Philadelphia one day last week Miss M. Thorn found a handsome miniature brooch.

The local W. C. T. U. met on Saturday evening at the residence of the president, Miss Rachel Carver.

Henry W. Comfort had a horse stolen last week and reported his loss to the Fallsington Horse Company.

Harry Watson and Mrs. Ida Hatcher were quietly married on the 5th inst. by Rev. Robert E. Wright. They went on a short tour and returned on Saturday to their residence recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. S. Woolston. On Saturday evening the many friends of the couple paid their respects with a charivari in which sleigh bells and tin horns played star parts. They were received by Mr. and Mrs. Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. David Satterthwaite, Sr., on Monday celebrated their golden wedding at their residence in this village. They were the recipients of many valuable tokens of esteem and received a host of friends and relatives in the afternoon. Mr. Satterthwaite is a prominent member of the Falls Township School Board. The aged couple have three children—David Satterthwaite, Jr., Watson B. Satterthwaite and Mrs. Charles Comfort, who with their familes, attended the celebration.

What a splendid type of tireless activity is the sun as the psalmist describes it issuing like "a bridegroom from his chamber and rejoicing like a strong man to run a race." Every man ought to rise in the morning refreshed by slumber and renewed by rest, eager for the struggle of the day. But how rarely this is so. Most people rise still unrefreshed, and dreading the strain of the day's labors. The cause of this is deficient vitality and behind this lies a deficient supply of pure, rich blood, and an inadequate nourishment of the body. There is nothing that will give a man strength and energy, as will Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It does this by increasing the the quantity and quality of the blood supply. This nourishes the nerves, feeds the brain, builds up enfeebled organs, and gives sense of strength and power which makes the struggle of life a joy. The "good feeling" which follows the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" is not due to stimulation as it contains no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicants. It does not brace up the body, but builds it up into a condition of sound health.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1902.

Among her many children the "robber tariff" cannot count the anthracite trust. How the Democrats wish coal was a protected product.

Government receipts from all sources for the month of October were $51,391,262; expenditures, $46,904,965, leaving a balance of nearly four and a half millions to be added to the surplus in the treasury.

Those few remaining calamity howlers who cannot understand why, in this plethora of prosperity, there should be any shortage of money to handle the western crops, do not have a comprehensive idea of the size of the crops. In Kansas a great many ears of corn weigh a quarter of a ton.

As long as our internal commerce on the Great Lakes continues to increase as it has during the year, and the railroads continue to order thousands of new locomotives and cars to overcome the freight famine, we need not feel unduly exercised over the statement that our prosperity is on the wane.

A prominent daily journal remarks that "the people's interest in Mr. Bryan and his teachings is still intense." Leaving off the last word of the sentence, the truth and accuracy of the statement will not be questioned. Still the Kansas City Journal admits that the indications of the aforesaid interest are still there, but in the past tense.

It took until November the 5th for the Skippack Transcript to find out that the nomination of Judge Pennypacker "was a shrewd political move." The Transcript and the Gazette have both been disappointed over the result of the election—the former because the Republican ticket won in Montgomery county and we because we got what Editor Dambly wanted.

It is reported that between 40,000 and 50,000 colonists have gone into the far western, northwestern and southwestern States during the past two months. The movement of home-makers and settlers has never been so great in the history of western railroads. The western States are anxious to have the Government irrigation works commence at the earliest possible date.

In 1890 the people were prosperous, but a good many of them did not know it. It was ding-donged into their ears that they ought to be better off. They consented to try something which would make them thus better off. Will they be likely to allow the same programme to be carried out again? Not, we think, until new generations arise which knew not the times of 1893-'95.

The official returns of the votes cast in Bucks county shows that the fake Ballot Reform and Union Party tickets were not regarded seriously and were taken for just what they were—cases of political hocus-pocus advanced for the purpose of entrapping the unwary. The result shows that only a fraction of those who signed the papers voted the ticket which they appealed to have placed upon the ballot. The highest Ballot Reform vote was cast for F. G. Edwards, who received but 165 votes cast in that column, while Senator Rice received the highest Union party vote, 331. Silas C. Swallow, the Prohibition candidate for Governor, received 155 votes; the Socialist Labor candidate, 7; the Socialist candidate 22. On the Citizens ticket Pennypacker received 2 votes.

The sentiment is growing stronger that good roads is certainly as worthy a cause as good harbors. Part of the traffic of the country has to pass in and out of the harbors, but all the traffic—all that is produced—has to pass over the roads. Harbors are necessary and of benefit to the country. Good roads will enefit the whole country and more immediately. The benefit will be direct, something tangible. While providing better facilities for the export and import of materials, why not add to the welfare of the farmer, the small owners, by inaugurating a system of good roads. Such a policy, by bringing the producer closer to the market, enhances the value not only of produce, but of the farms on which produced. It will add to the wealth of the country.

The New York Sun would like to know why a man has to tip a waiter for bringing him food and drink? and why shouldn't every establishment pay the wages of its employes? "Nine times out of ten," adds the Sun, "the feed waiter has done nothing to earn his fee. If he is not feed at all, he is likely to do less than his duty, in which case he should be discharged. "Tipping is a foreign institution and has no proper palce in the United States. To the feer it is a nuisance and an imposition. To the feed, it is, properly considered, either a bit of blackmail extorted or a degrading charity. Tipping is growing every day, alien as the custom is for democratic equality. Any trust or trust-buster that can do anything to check it will do a considerable public service.

It is to be hoped that there will never be another such "reform" campaign in Bristol as the one just closed. For the Edwards organ to charge debauchery to the Republicans was a very clever scheme to attempt to rid itself of the foul odor which clings to the garments of the "fusion" movement. When it is openly bragged that if the funds had not run low and that if they had had a thousand dollars more they would have made the "Republicans go some," it will be hard to convince Bristol people that the Edwards' campaign represented a temperance organization or was run upon Christian Endeavor principles. When men were kept drunk for a week and a carte blanch order left at the bottler's to deliver beer at alleged clubs all over the town and even to congregations on open lots upon Pennsylvania Railroad property; when five dollar bills were circulated with reckless abandon and every effort made to corrupt every corruptible vote in sight, the effort to get rid of suspicion by charging the opposition with the dispicable acts committed themselves will not be gullibly swallowed by those who know the situation of affairs here.

THE ELECTION SEQUENCE.

The election is over, excitement has subsided and the voters can now calmly consider the result. In the flight of arrows which occurred on election day the Republicans suffered, and most of the party's candidates were stricken upon the field of battle.

The only consolation Republicans can extract from the result is that as a party they have no apologies to offer, and rest in the contentment that there were nominated for the various offices men of the highest character; men possessed of ability and candidates whom if elected would have discharged their various duties in a manner expected of faithful public servants.

The great principle of the American form of government is submission to the will of the majority, and the voters of Bucks county, in their wisdom, have seen fit to deny the candidacies of the Republican aspirants, and their will is law.

However, was the determination a sensible one?

The business affairs of the county, as managed by Republican officers, were never administered so capably under Democratic rule. The county had been brought to a point where its finances are in gilt-edge shape; a good cash balance is in the treasury and the taxes have been lowered.

In the next Legislature Bucks county's Democratic and Fusion delegation will be swamped in the ponderous majority. In the Senate there will be but 9 Democrats, and Republican Bucks furnishes one of that number. The House will contain 147 Republicans and 45 Democrats and 2 Fusionists, and again Bucks furnishes one of the Democrats and one of the Fusionists. Three of our members of the Legislature will be pitiful objects during the session this winter. Out of harmony with the rest of the State, the members elected upon the Democratic ticket will receive scant recognition in the matter of committee assignments, and will be without influence or prestige.

Our neighboring counties of Philadelphia, Montgomery, Chester, Delaware and others have elected solid Republican delegations, and it is humiliating to think that Bucks will have to trail far in the rear and will not be entitled even to the crumbs that fall from the Republican table.

But the voters of the county have so willed it.

WHAT THE BALLOTS DID.

The politicians have had a shaking up. There have been some changes, but nothing serious. We still control the Senate by a large majority and the House by a good working majority. Had the margin been narrower, it would perhaps have been better, as there would have been less tendency to carelessness in legislation—less danger of factions.

The results of the election of State officials is significant. In New York, where Tammany polled more than its old time majority for the Democratic ticket, Hill has demonstrated that, pruned of Bryanism, the old Democratic Donkey is still quite vigorous. It looks as though Hill would have been stronger had he not blundered with his coal plank, or rather had not President Roosevelt knocked the props from under the socialistic movement by the settlement of the coal strike. As it is, though his candidate for Governor of New York was defeated, it can only be considered a great victory for Hill personally. But his mistake was fatal. In his anxiety to gain a temporary advantage by resort to demogogic measures, he sacrificed a great national opportunity. He may possibly by the exercise of political sagacity secure the Democratic nomination for the Presidency in 1904, but he has rendered his election as impossible as that of Bryan.

Tom Johnson, with his circus campaign, demonstrated such absolute unfitness for national leadership that his nomination, except in a spasm of idocy on the part of the Democratic party, would be impossible.

Bryan, "sad relic of departed worth," is no more. His own State continues to roll up Republican majorities.

Without an issue or a leader, the Democratic party is an object of commiseration their only hope a return to the fold of the rotund shepherd at Princeton.

On the other hand, the result has insured Roosevelt's nomination by his own party, and will check the tendency of certain politicians to fight him because he is not subject to their dictates. The President's popularity was appealed to, and with effect, to save many shaky districts.

CHARACTER AND ORATORY

It has been declared that Judge Pennypacker was not a "success" upon the stump. In a campaign where sounding brass and tinkling symbols evoke wild huzzas; where rhetorical flights and studied appeals to passion and prejudice sway the judgment of men and do not permit of a solution of the problems of the day, Judge Pennypacker was not in "successful" competition for the office of Governor. At no place did the Republican candidate, however, give a truer insight to his character than at the big meeting at Norristown where he spoke to his old friends and neighbors and told them some secrets and revealed his heart at the close of the campaign. These were his words:

"I am overpowered with the immensity of this demonstration. I have gone over this great Commonwealth, talking in many places, and now I have returned home to the county which of all the counties of this great Commonwealth interests me most. I am going to say to you what I have said nowhere else. I have never sought the office of Governor of Pennsylvania. I do not seek it now. I have asked no man in this state to vote for me. I do not ask you to vote for me. The responsibility of this election rests upon you. Should I be elected next Tuesday, then without any sense of elation, with an appreciation of the great confidence you have reposed in me, I shall accept that high office, which I regard as one of the highest upon the face of the earth, because it is the highest executive office in the greatest of the American Commonwealths. And I shall go forward to the performance of my duties with a sense of responsibility and with a determination to perform those duties to the very utmost of my ability."

She Knows Best.

Nature knows best how to fight her own battles. An encouragement and support to nature—that is what Scott's Emulsion is. That may help account for its remarkable record in curing consumption.

Fashionable young lady, detaching her hair before retiring: "What dreams may come when we have shuffled off this mortal coil!"

In copying the political slush dished up by Philadelphia reporters the Doylestown Intelligencer, which took anything but a straightforward course during the campaign, reprints the canard that "B. Frank Gilkeson, of Bristol, is a candidae for his old position of Banking Commissioner to succeed General Frank Reeder." Mr. Gilkeson has repeatedly declared that he is not an aspirant and will not accept an office. The Gazette has published this statement before concerning this matter, but it appears that the newspaper fellows are bound to give him the office.

The re-election of Irving P. Wanger to Congress is a fitting tribute of the appreciation in which his services are held by his constituents. In the nomination of Mr. Ingersoll, the Democrats put forward the best candidate they could find. Mr. Ingersoll is a lawyer of ability, a gentleman of culture and an experienced politician. Not a syllable could be uttered against his character, and notwithstanding the great Republican slump in Bucks county, which practically swamped the rest of the ticket, Mr. Wanger had a majority of 372. The district gave him a majority of 2043.

Can a woman give to another woman the unswerving loyalty which an ideal friendship should exact? Will a woman be faithful to her friend not merely while she is her friend, but after? If for any reason, jealousy or envy or the poison of suspicion part the two, will each be loyal to the past, keep its secrets and respect its obligations? If ever two men who have once been friends wear out their friendship and perhaps exchange it for open enmity, they still respect the tie that has been broken. For the future they will strike as hard as they are able, but in doing so they will not violate their old friendship, nor use the opportunity which is given them for inflicting pain—but is this the case with woman? These are questions which Rafford Pyke asks in the November Cosmopolitan on "What Women Like in Women."

We have heard a great deal of trusts and corporations during the recent campaign. Of course they are to be "curbed," etc. But, why is it, then, when there is an opportunity of checking some specific wrong attempted or favor asked in the way of special legislation, do not our Democratic Congressmen unite with those Republican members who oppose such legislation and vote it down? They waste their strength talking of the trusts in tones of thunder, but they will vote to give the Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio railroads as much Government land in the District of Columbia as the roads may demand, and to appropriate several million dollars to aid those poor corporations in making the improvements required by a growing business. Their votes last session and their recent speeches are rather incongruous. Perhaps, though, they really believe that there are certain "good" trusts.

The demand from Hawaii and the Philippines for the admission of Chinese labor to those islands under certain restrictions, should not, because of prejudice and popular clamor, be dismissed without consideration. In Hawaii, the need of such labor is beyond dispute as the increase in acreage under civilization has far outstripped the supply of labor. In the Philippines, the conditions are even worse. White men will not and cannot do the work demanded in developing the vast resources of our tropical possessions. The native cannot be depended upon. He only works by fits and starts when necessity drives him to toil. If by restrictions the Chinese can be prevented coming from the islands to this country and so competing with our own labor, there can certainly be no objection to admitting a limited number to meet the absolute demands of the situation. It seems that any other policy would destroy the industries in Hawaii and seriously retard, if not entirely prevent, the progress of development in the Philippines.

The declaration by Judge Pennypacker that Pennsylvania "has no ills worthy of mention," was met with a storm of adverse comment by a hostile press. Newspapers of the North American school went the whole gamut in the use of abusive language directed toward the officers of the State. They would have the people believe that Pennsylvania is a den of thieves and that the only honest men are those who do not hold office. In reply to these charges which are hurled by the saffron sheets during campaign times, the conservative and independent Schwenksville Item says:

Do not revile the state. It pays far more in the treasuries of the counties than it receives from them. The state builds bridges, pays $5,500,000 per year to the schools, returns the larger part of the personal property tax, some $1,500,000 for charities, and large amounts for the expenses of judges, county superintendents of schools and others. In total the counties probably receive three or four times as much as they pay to the state. There are twelve millions of dollars now available in the State Treasury. The State of Pennsylvania accomplishes as much, if not more, for its people than any other state in the Union.

A Journalistic Plutocrat.

Perkasie News.

The home of an Iowa editor was burglarized the other night, and $1,300 in cash stolen. Serves him right. An editor has no right to $1,300. It makes him bumptious and autocratic. The reward for his toil belongs to the people. It is up to him to endorse every public and private enterprise, and for his reward, from the successful get "thanks," and from the "licked" a black eye for his business. An editor with $1,300 must be a thing of joy and beauty forever. An editor without $1,300 is more frequent, and a better public servant. The Iowan burglars deserve the thanks of the country for restoring this editor to his proper level. The way to keep them alive is to keep them poor. Their highest hope is a twelve-line obituary, detailing their public-spirit, self-abnegation, and all that sort of thing.

Standard Set for Democrats,

Doylestown Republican.

With more than ordinary interest the people of this county will watch the administration of the public offices about to be turned over to Democrats. It has been a long time since they were in control. The last Board of County Commissioners left a legacy of debts and little money in the treasury. Under Republican administration there has been a moderate tax rate and a full treasuryat the close of each year. County affairs have been economically administered and county property well cared for. These facts are not recited to make odious comparisons or to reflect upon the newly-elected county officials, who are reputable citizens, but merely to call attention to conditions as they existed in the past and as they are today, that the tax payers may note whether the change they have demanded is to be an improvement or a disadvantage.

BASKET BALL

BURLINGTON PLAYED FAST GAME.

The National League Basket Ball season of 1902-1903 opened in Bristol on last Saturday evening when the champions of last year had for their opponents the team representing the City of Burlington. The game put up by the visitors was a surprise to the followers of the locals, and considering the fact it was the first contest in which the reorganized Burlington combination had played together it was a good contest and manager Reber has no cause to feel ashamed of the result. Bomhoff, Hitchens and J. Wallace, of the old Millville team, were in the line-up and with the addition of Reeves, who has been signed to play centre Burlington promises to cut a big figure in the National League race.

The auditorium was well filled on Saturday night, over 900 persons being present. The Bristol team was the first to appear upon the floor for practice clad in new uniforms of brown and white sweaters, buff canvass pants and brown and white striped stockings. They received an ovation as they entered the cage, and in practice every time a goal was thrown the act was met with a round of cheers. Hough, Klein, Everingham, Mulliner, John Plant, Len Plant and Mellick went through the warming-up process later joined by Bennett. The Millville end of the Burlington team was late in arriving and did not enter the cage until 8.45. The Burlington team's uniform consisted of red and white sweaters and stockings and buff canvass trousers. The players consisted of Morgan, Wick, Bomhoff, Hitchens, Oves, Connelly, McCullough and John Wallace.

A change that has been made in the interior arrangements of the cage is the placing of a sash of heavy plate glass back of the baskets, thus making "clean" shots necessary to land a goal when the ball is thrown from any distance. Apparently the only time a combination shot proves successful is when the player is directly underneath, when the ball can be carromed off the hard back board into the basket.

Play was started at 9 o'clock. Smallwood acted as referee and the contest for the first twenty minutes was a see-saw affair. First Bristol would be in the lead and then Burlington would forge ahead.

Hough was the first to score, a free throw on a foul committed by Hitchens. Bennett was passed the ball while under the basket and landed an easy goal. Oves scored the first field goal for the visitors.

The score was tied at five points and later the Jerseymen led by 10 to 9. Hough scored free and a tie was the result. Bomhoff scored from the field followed by Klein, making a lead of 2 points. Oves landed a second goal putting the Jerseymen ahead. Hough scored a single point on a foul by Hitchens, and a minute later the little Bristol forward tallied from the field. Mulliner added a field goal and the half ended in Bristol's favor—17 to 14.

The second half presented a change in the line-up by both teams. Everingham was substituted for Mulliner. Oves retired, Bomhoff went to centre and Wick took Bomhoff's place at forward.

Bennett scored first. Bomhoff followed suit. Wick and Hough committed double fout, Hough missed free throw, but Hitchens scored. Wick scored from field and the score was tied at 19. Hitchens committed two fouls and Klein landed both free throws, and later threw one from the field—score 23-19. With but 8 minutes to play the game assumed the whirlwind order and, as usual in such cases, Bristol landed a shower of field goals. Hough shot one from the field, then Klein, Hough again, Hitchens and Hough again, double foul Hough and Wallace (neither counted) and just before the bell rung Hough landed another. Score Bristol 36, Burlington 23. The line-up:

Bristol	Positions	Burlington
Klein	forward	Wick, Bomhoff
Hough	forward	Hitchens
Mulliner, Everingham	centre	Bomhoff, Oves
Plant	guard	Connely, Wallace
Bennett	guard	McCullough

Goals from field—Klein 3, Hough 6, Mulliner 1, Everingham 1, Plant 1, Bennett 2, Bomhoff 2, Wick 1, Hitchens 2, Oves 2, McCullough 1. Goals from offence—Klein 3, Hough 5, Hitchens 7. BRISTOL WINS FROM CAMDEN.

Another large crowd gathered at the Auditorium on Tuesday evening to see the contest between Bristol and Camden. Morganweck's electrics had been putting up a swift game this season and easily defeated New York on Saturday and it was with considerable misgiving that the local enthusiasts contemplated the result. Bristol, however, had a full head of steam, took the lead in the first two minutes and were never in danger throughout the game. The home team led at the end of the first half by the score of 17 to 8 and won by the final score of 29 to 17. Camden's only field goal in the first half was scored by Ferat, and it was not until near the close of the second half that Bossert landed two, which saved a whitewash in the second. Owing to the absence of Bennet, Mellick was pitted against Deal and the tiny Bristol guard shut out the great forward, who led the entire league last year in scoring. Keenan, whose reputation as a scorer is notorious, was also shut out by Mulliner and Everingham, and Ferat succeeded only once in eluding Plant. Camden played a desperate game in the effort to keep up her winning streak.

DETAILS OF THE GAME.

The game started off with a rush. Keenan fouled and Klein scored free. Bossert fouled and Klein missed. Mellio interferred and Deal talled on the free throw. Mellick again fouled and Deal missed. Kinkaide fouled but Klein missed. Hough scored from field. Mulliner landed a field goal. Deal missed easy shot under the basket. Keenan fouled, Hough threw the ball and scored. Plant fouled and Deal talied One of the most sensational shots ever made in the hall was executed by the marvelous Klein. From the middle of the hall with deliberate aim he shot the ball over the heavy beams of the building and it went through the basket upon its descent as clean as a whistle. The first field goal for Camden was scored by Ferat. Score 8-4. Keenan fouled and Hough failed to tally. Plant was penalized and Deal added another point to the score. Keenan again fouled and Hough lost an opportunity to mark up one. Bossert fouled and Deal used abusive language to the referee and a double penalty was the result. Klein scored on both offences. Bossert again broke the rules and Klein misguaged the basket. Klein shot one from the field. Klein fouled and Deal missed. Klein was left uncovered under the basket, the ball was passed him from the opposite end of the cage and he scored an easy one. Hough fouled and Deal scored. A minute later Hough landed one from the field. Score 16-6. Mellick fouled and Deal scored. Mellick and Deal had a vigorous argument in which elbows were used and a double offence was called by the referee. Klein and Deal both scored on the free throws. Hough fouled, Deal missed. Mellick fouled and Deal scored. The half ended 17-8 in Bristol's favor.

SECOND HALF.

In the second half Everingham was substituted for Mulliner. Bossert opened hostilities with an offence and Klein added a point. Hough made a one-handed shot and scored. Mellick got his grappling hook on Deal and Camden gained a point. Everingham executed a sly movement but the referee was next, but the score was not fattened. Plant disregarded the rules and Deal added a point. Keenan fouled, but there was nothing doing. Klein scored from the field. Score 22-10. Mellick pawed Deal, but no score followed. Mellick repeated the offence and still no tally. Deal fouled and Klein was off on the free throw. Everingham and Bossert got tangled up in a double foul. Deal scored on one but Klein missed his fourth consecutive free shot. Keenan fouled and Klein landed the free one. Keenan, who had been unable to score during the evening against Bristol's lanky centres, was taken out and Bossert moved to centre and Middleton, the "rubber man," took Bossert's place at guard. Kinkaide fouled and Deal missed. Plant offended and Deal missed. Kinkaide became reckless and was penalized. Everingham took the free throw and scored. Hough fouled and Deal missed. Bossert scored from the field. Kinkaide offended and Everingham tallied. Klein landed one from the field. Bossert scored another from the field. Everingham fouled and Deal added one to the score. Kinkaide fouled and Everingham scored. Everingham gave Bossert a "twister" and Deal scored on the offence. Plant got in some football tactics but Deal missed the chance to add a point. Middleton fouled and Everingham scored. Within three minutes of the end Deal was disqualified for abusive talk to the referee, and Thomas took his place. No further points were added to the score. Bristol 29, Camden 17.

BASKET BALL CHAT.

Wilmington Saturday night.

Bristol spoiled that 1000 per cent.

Camden was easier than Burlington.

Burlington appears to have a good man in Wick.

Everingham and Mulliner showed greatly improved form in the Camden game.

Mellick went after Deal like a torpedo boat destroyer. Al was all right and kept the great "Snake" from scoring.

The Burlington games will be played in the old Birch Opera House which has been fitted up for basket ball purposes.

Hough is played harder than any of the forwards yet the "kid" always has several marks to his credit in the score table.

Bristol has not played a passing game this season. Manager Klein should work that feature more. It will tell in the long run.

Ferat's single field goal was the only one made in the first half, while Klein made three, Hough two and Mulliner one in the first 20 minutes.

The Resolute basket ball team has been oraganized for the season. Managers of amateur teams wishing games should address Frank Christopher, manager, P. O. Box 366, Bristol, Pa.

Old reliable John Plant has but a single fault—it takes him too long to get rid of the ball. When John gets his hands on the leather it's a case of hanging to it until the referee's whistle blows.

When Keenan, the heaviest scoring centre in the league, is shut out you can make up your mind that there has been "something doing," yet Mulliner did the trick in the first half and "Sleepy Bill" Everingham did likewise in the second.

To prevent a repetition of the confusion caused by parties not securing their reserved seat tickets at the news agency, for the Camden game, and thereby causing a great deal of trouble, both to themselves and the ticket seller, the reserved tickets will in future be saved for one game at the hall until called for. If not called for and no notification given a day in advance, the tickets will not thereafter be saved at the hall, unless payment is guaranteed. This should give satisfaction to all.

Sellersville in Glory.

Sellersville Herald.

"You can tie the Dutch but you can't beat them" was a slogan that was worn thread-bare during the campaign. It happens just that way.

Though a condition devoutly to be wished it was not seriously expected, although it was a possibility that had been reckoned with, that of electing both Zane and Cressman, Sellersville's two candidates.

A combination of circumstances developed in this campaign which has resulted in the election of two Sellersville Assemblymen. Our cup of joy is full and running over the sides.

Two of our citizens have been elevated from the rank of plain, ordinary citizens to the title of "Honorables." This result was hardly expected, which renders the town's rejoicing the more supreme.

The county has honored Sellersville with an unprecedented distinction and when we gain our composure we will carry ourselves with more grave dignity.

Wednesday night was a "hot time in the old town." The town's good fortune had to be properly commemorated, and it was a mollification in which all could join, for both Democrats and Republicans shared in the honors. An impromptu parade covered the town and while it was not a grand affair it served the purpose of giving vent to pent up feelings. H. T. Williams, Esq., was chief marshall, with enough assistants to conduct a parade ten times as large. "Bob" and 'Squire followed the procession in a carriage. The newly elected representatives were cheered to the echo all along the line of march. A fitting close was the demonstration in Fireman's hall after the parade. It was called a "smoker." Not withstanding the great enthusiasm the audience listened intelligently to the speakers.

Consumption

Salt pork is a famous old-fashioned remedy for consumption. "Eat plenty of pork," was the advice to the consumptive 50 and 100 years ago.

Salt pork is good if a man can stomach it. The idea behind it is that fat is the food the consumptive needs most.

Scott's Emulsion is the modern method of feeding fat to the consumptive. Pork is too rough for sensitive stomachs. Scott's Emulsion is the most refined of fats, especially prepared for easy digestion.

Feeding him fat in this way, which is often the only way, is half the battle, but Scott's Emulsion does more than that. There is something about the combination of cod liver oil and hypophosphites in Scott's Emulsion that puts new life into the weak parts and has a special action on the diseased lungs.

A sample will be sent free upon request.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

"Bill" Devery on the Election.

"Big Bill" Devery, formerly chief of police of New York under Tammany, takes great satisfaction in the defeat of the Democratic ticket in the Empire State for the reason that it carried with it the collapse of the Presidential aspirations of D. B. Hill. The latter undertook to unseat Devery in the Democratic State Convention and now the Bowery statesman is engaged in pulling the tail feathers from the sage of "Woolford's Roost." As a coiner of slang epigrams, Devery has few equals and his comments upon the result are unique and interesting.

"Some time ago," remarked "Big Bill" Devery, in discussing the election, "I said that David B. Hill was a political hold-out man, who wouldn't go into the game unless he could feel the marks on the cards through a pair of boxing gloves. He had the cards marked this time all right, but one night, after he had been smoking political dope and was shaking hands with himself in the White House, somebody stole the deck from under his liver pad and changed the marks.

"I ain't playing no searchlights on myself as a prophet, but Hill's finish was plain to me all through the campaign. He rung the bell at the front door of the Morgue the day he passed me along in the convention at Saratoga. After this his address is 'D. B. Hill, Deadhouse, Compartment No. 13; handle with care.'

"Ever since he has been in politics Hill has been a red hand, consisting of four diamonds and a heart. The Democrats have thought all along that in Hill they were holding five diamonds. Sometimes they have carried off a bluff with it and sometimes they have stayed out and let the other fellows chip along, but this year they had to show their four flush when Odell called them, and the Republicans won with a pair of nines.

"It's a funny thing how a human refrigerator like Hill has been able to make people think he was a real live one for many years. Ever shake hands with Hill? No? Ever go into market on a cold morning and pick up a fish? Yes? Then you've shaken hands with Hill.

"When I said you couldn't elect a bald-headed man President I spoke the truth, but I was talking particularly about a bald-headed man like Hill. Whenever you see a man get bald in front first, so his forehead looks like half a football, it's a bad sign. And when you scramble that up with a pair of eyes that work like the pendulum on a clock, there's a combination to run around a corner and hide behind a tree from.

"Of course, Hill won't stand pat and admit he lost. He is doing the old stunt, hollering 'fire' from under the bed. When Bryan was 'it' in the Democratic party Hill got into his cage up in Wolfert's Roost, locked the doors on the inside, and the only time people knew he was alive was when they heard him snore.

"This year he thought there was a chance to get busy. He gets his 'I am a Democrat' sign out, puts some axle grease on his peanut cart and goes up and down the State telling people that he sets a better table at his house than Ben Odell sets. I don't think anybody believed him at that. He looks like he lived on cracked ice and olives.

"I ain't crowing over the finish of Dave Hill. He was making people believe he was a great man when I was a common, ordinary policeman. When I said that Dave Hill had got into the selling plater class, a lot of people that thought they were wise laughed at me. Now Dave is ruled off the turf."

He Wouldn't Split.

The tramp in the green goggles stood before the door.

"Yes," said the housewife kindly; "you can have a good meal if you split that wood."

"Madam," said the tramp in a precise grammatical manner, "I was born and raised in Boston— But stop, shall I tell you the sad, sad story of my life?"

"Yes, yes."

"When a youth in Boston, I was disinherited for splitting an infinitive, and since then (his voice broke) I have vowed never to split anything, not even the wood!"

"Sick 'im, Tige!"—Baltimore Herald.

No Consolation For Cracked China.

How many housekeepers there are that can sympathize with the old Virginia lady who said to her friend on finding a treasured old cup cracked by a careless maid, "I know of nothing to compare with the affliction of losing a handsome piece of old china." "Surely," said the friend, "it is not so bad as losing one's children." "Yes, it is, for when your children die you do have the consolation of religion, you know."

Her Observation.

"Do you believe that monkeys can talk like human beings?"

"No," answered Miss Cayenne, "but I have known human beings who could chatter like monkeys."—Washington Star.

Dr. A. B Kront, who for some time has been employed at Harry Headley's drug store, has gone to Philadelphia to live.

Saturday will be the last opportunity to pay delinquent county taxes. Collector Kraft will issue executions after that date.

J. W. N Huntington, layreader of St. John Chrysostom's Church, Philadelphia, was a guest of the Rev. W. H. Bown on Monday of this week.

The Girls Friendly Society of St. Paul's Mission will hold its annual fair in Pythian Hall on Friday afternoon and evening, December 5. Articles suitable for Christmas gifts will be on sale.

Five additional houses on Trenton avenue, erected by Peirce and Williams and John N. DeGroot, will be ready for occupancy this week. All of the houses have been sold and will be occupied immediately.

The Guard Association of Frankford Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., will pay a fraternal visit to Fidelity Council, No. 21, next Thursday evening. All the members of the local Council are requested to be present.

Preparatory to the inauguration of the free postal delivery the houses in Bristol are being re numbered. An agent has been engaged for several days correcting the existing numbers and placing new ones where none exist.

John McOwen, Jr., after being relieved of his strenuous duties as one of the managers of the Edwards campaign, made his first visit to New York last week. Tammany Hall, Sing Sing and other reform institutions were inspected.

Shepherds Delight Lodge and Sarah E. Bevan Home gave a kitchen party for Mrs. Alva Johnson on Monday evening at her home on Radcliffe street. The evening was pleasantly spent in the playing of games, etc., after which refreshments were served.

The rehearsals for the oratorio "The Ten Virgins," are progressing very satisfactorily. The work is more difficult than "Paul the Apostle," which was rendered last year. The chorus will comprise 60 voices. One of the best selections is entitled "Sleepers Awake, a Voice is Calling," bass voices. Another chorus of elaborate setting is "Let Your Loins be Girded," in G minor. The rehearsals are held in the parlor of the M. E. Church every Monday evening.

On next Wednesday evening Martha Washington Chamber, No. 2, Order of Knights of Friendship, will receive a visit from three chambers of the order located at Trenton, Capital, No. 5; Mercer, No. 3, and Wilbur, No. 7. The visitors will be accompanied by a band of music and will be met at the depot by members of the local chamber. A short street parade will be given. Visitors from Philadelphia are also expected.

A second civil service examination of applicants for positions as letter carriers will be held in one of the school rooms of the high school building on Saturday. Howard R. Thornton, secretary of the local civil service board, will conduct the examinations. Fifteen applications have been received. Four carriers and two substitutes will be required. At the first examination an insufficient number of applicants successfully answered the questions propounded.

The sixth annual roast pig supper will be given by the members of the Bristol A. M. E. Church on next Thursday evening in Pythian Hall. Each year these annual suppers of the A. M. E. Church grow in popularity, and this year greater preparations than ever have been made to accommodate the patrons. The following excellent menu will be served: Roast pig, chicken, ham, cold slaw, potato salad, sweet and white potatoes, cheese, pickles, fruit, cake, tea and coffee. Supper served from 6 to 9 o'clock.

William Hackett was arrested on Monday upon a warrant sworn out by E. E. Hall, superintendent of the Bristol and Philadelphia Passenger Railway Company, charging that Hackett and a companion were guilty of disorderly conduct upon a trolley car on August 15. Hackett left town and did not return until two weeks ago. Owing to the illness of one of the principal witnesses for the prosecution the hearing was continued until Friday at 2 o'clock. William S. Silbert became surety for the defendant.

William H. Stackhouse, who met with such a horrible death at the Carpet Mill on last Thursday morning when by the bursting of a "whizzer," his skull was broken in two, was buried from his late residence on Otter street on Sunday afternoon Bristol Fire Co., No. 1, of which the deceased was a member, attended in a body as did also his fellow workmen in the dye house of the carpet mill. The interment was in the Tullytown cemetery, services being held previously in the Tullytown M. E. Church.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

The November meeting of the Bristol Borough Council was held in the council chamber on Monday evening with all the members present excepting Butler, Coyle and Gallagher.

The minutes of the last regular and special meetings were read and approved.

The Street committee reported that it had conferred with the Borough Attorney regarding the leasing a portion of Lafayette street to E. T. Steel & Co., and were informed that Council had no power to execute the lease, and the committee, therefore, made an adverse report. The committee also reported the matter of enforcing the repairing of sidewalks onOtter street had been attended and that the walks in front of the Taylor and Rue properties had been repaved.

The Police committee reported that the police electric alarm system had been placed in good condition with the exception of one station, and that would be in working order within a few days. Twenty-four arrests were made during the month —1 for sodomy, 3 for larceny, 3 for interference with officer, 2 for assault, 12 for drunkenness and 3 for nuisance. Twenty street lights were reported out during the month.

The Street committee's report was received and filed.

The Police committee's report took the same course.

A resolution adopted by the directors of the Bristol Improvement Company and addressed to the Burgess and Council was read protesting against the leasing or vacating a portion of Lafayette street, as petitioned by E. T. Steel & Co. The resolution stated that Lafayette street was an important thoroughfare leading into the mill district and was heavily travelled and therefore the company protested against any reduction in the width of the street, that if the council granted the petition of Steel & Co., the Improvement Company, in justice to stockholders would be compelled to sue and ask for damages.

Mr. DeGroot said that the introduction of the resolution was not in order and was in favor of it not being received inasmuch as the matter had been disposed of. The communication was received and filed, Mr. DeGroot voting in the negative.

A petition was received from residents of the Fourth ward asking for the placing of a number of street lights. Referred to Street committee with power.

The bondsmen of Fred I. Kratt, delinquent tax collector, asked for an extension of the life of the bond until the February meeting of council. Granted.

Warrants were ordered to be issued for the arrest of a number of persons who have failed to pay borough tax, and in which cases no personal property could be found.

The following bills were ordered paid:

School Board Meeting.

The Bristol Public School Board held its monthly meeting in the director's room in the high school building on last Thursday evening. Those present were John K. Wildman, Edward H. Foster, Harvey S. Rue, M. D. Harrison, W. H. Hall, Sr, W. L. Joyce, D. A. Barrett, Fred Stuckert, Doron Green. The treasurer reported having paid all orders drawn at the last meeting and had received $19.75 for tuition from non-residents, and $225 from delinquent tax collector F. I. Kraft. The Property committee reported having inspected the new hot water heater which has been installed in the Bath street school building and had accepted it. Howard R. Thornton, secretary of the local board of civil service examiners, asked permission to hold the examination for mail carriers in one of the school rooms, which request was granted. The Superintendent reported as follows: Number of scholars enrolled, 823; greatest number present, 753; least number present, 632; average attendance, 674; per cent of attendance, 88; present every half day, 272; new pupils admitted, 28; number promoted, 1. Presbytery Met at Doylestown.

The regular meeting of the Presbytery of Philadelphia North was held in the Doylestown Presbyterian Church on Tuesday, the first session starting at 10 a. m. Rev. J. B. Laird, of Frankford, presided as moderator, Rev. Dr. Pumphrey, of Fox Chase, as temporary clerk and Rev. Richard Montgomery, of Ashbourne, as stated clerk. There was read a call to Rev. George H. Stephenson to become pastor of the Morrisville Presbyterian Church at a salary of $800 and parsonage free. Dr. Pumphrey, of Fox Chase, asked to have the pastoral relations between himself and the church dissolved on account of ill health. Many reports were read and miscellaneous business transacted. The meeting adourned to convene again in January.

An Evening Company.

William Hoffman entertained a few of his friends at his home on Lafayette street on Tuesday evening. Vocal and instrumental music and games were indulged in and Eugene Larabee entertained the guests with his graphophone. Refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Mame Meehan, Tessie Walker, Bertha Shade, Mary Jenkins, Mary Campfield, Katie Walker, Maud Meehan, Hannah McCauley, Elvira Jenkins, Katie Shade, Ethel Larabee, Mame Brown, Messrs. Eddie Peoples, Thomas Campfield, Howard Dormer, Eugene Larabee, Harry Harper, John Jenkins, John Connors, Willie Burns, Barney Meehan, Lawrence Riley and Thomas McGurk.

Expected reports of the wholesale closing of school houses have failed to materialize. Yet we have on page 572 of "The First Battle," by William J. Bryan, the following announcement:

"Mark my words, if the gold standard goes on and the people continue to complain, the gold-standard advocate, instead of trying to improve the condition of the people, will be recommending that you close your schools, so that the people will not realize how much you are suffering."

Of course we note an "if" or two in this. The gold standard has gone on, we believe, but for some reason the people have failed to make the expected complaints, and even voted on the 4th of November to continue the gold-standard advocates in power.

Invalid and Sacramental Wines.

Speer's Unfermented Grape Juice is pure natural juice not cooked. It is made from the finest Port Grape. Much used for Churches evening parties and invalids who are opposed to the use of stimulants.

Devotional meeting of the W. C. T. U. on Wednesday, November 19.

On the Grapevine Trolley.

The first car that left Doylestown on Saturday morning, over the Newtown trolley road, jumped the track on a curve going up a hill about two miles from Newtown and ran part way across the field. The jolt threw several of the passengers from their seats and many of the workmen, who were passengers, were obliged to walk to Newtown as the car was not gotten on to the track for about two hours.

Skull and Human Bones.

The report that a recently buried body of a man had been unearthed by a man plowing on Burlington Island was investigated by Coroner Wells, of Burlington, who found that instead of its being a recently buried boy, it was a skull and a few human bones, probably the remains of an Indian that had been buried many years ago. The bones were found in clavey substance, and after being exposed to the air crumbled to dust.

Garbage Reduction Plant.

The Burlington Garbage Reduction Company has purchased a tract of land in West Burlington adjoining the Standard Oil plant, where operations will soon be begun to erect a three story brick building, plans for which are now being made by an architect in Boston. The work will be pushed ahead as rapidly as possible, as the company is anxious to get its plant installed, it being the first in the east a nd for which system other Eastern cities are clamoring.

Steel's Mill To Enlarge.

E. T. Steel & Company are making preparation for the building of a big addition to their cassimere mills in Bristol. The row of buildings upon Lafayette street, between the rairoad and Canal street, known as the "stone row," has been purchased and the tenants warned to vacate. The buildings will be torn down to make room for the erection of the new structure which will be a two-story brick 85x245 feet. Steel's mill, at present, is one of the largest in Bristol and employs about 600 hands.

Wore Old Masonic Jewel.

Stanford K. Runyan, of Tullytown, worshipful master of Bristol Lodge, No. 25, F. and A. M., was chosen to represent the local lodge at the Washington celebration held at Masonic Temple, Philadelphia, on Wednesday of last week, when President Roosevelt was present. Mr. Runyan upon that occasion was decorated with the jewel of the office formerly worn by John Clark, the first master of the Bristol lodge when it was organized, March 15, 1780. The emblem is kept in the vault at the Farmers' National Bank at Bristol.

Robbery at Newtown.

The residence of Thomas B. Linton, near Newtown, was ransacked during Tuesday night, it is alleged, by a colored man who had been employed by Mr. Linton only two days, who stole all of Mrs. Linton's valuable jewelry, several overcoats and other wearing apparel. The robbery was discovered early Wednesday morning. The alleged thief left the George School station on the 9.24 train and the agent telegraphed to Philadelphia authorities to arrest the colored man. When the train arrived at the Reading Terminal the man was placed under arrest. Constable Sutton, of Newtown, was sent for and will take the prisoner to Newtown for a hearing.

Married at St. Marks.

Miss Mary Ennis, of Maple street, Bristol, and Edward Mahan, of Holmesburg, were married at St. Mark's Church yesterday morning at 9 o'clock with high nuptial mass, Father Fitzgeral officiating. The bridesmaid was Miss Margaret Ennis, of Lower Bensalem, sister of the bride. J. Mahan, a brother of the groom, acted as best man. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of friends of the contracting parties. A reception was held at the home of the bride, where congratulations were received and many handsome gifts displayed. After a bridal tour Mr. and Mrs. Mahan will make their home in Holmesburg.

Lively Scene on Ferry Boat.

Quite a sensation occurred upon the ferryboat William E. Doron at the Burlington wharf yesterday morning, when a youth and a young woman were prevented from making the trip to Bristol by the arrival of the boy's mother. A lively scene was presented when the angry mother upbraided the young woman for attempting to take her boy away ostensibly to be married. From the mother's language it would be inferred the object of the youth's affection was far below the correct social scale and that the boy had not reached the age where a marriage was legal without consent of parents or guardian. The mother started to find an officer and the young couple left the boat and headed in another direction.

A Burlington Enterprise in Trouble.

The progress of the new theatre building which is in course of erection in Burlington has been seriously interrupted by the collapse of the financial end of the enterprise. As originally intended the building was to cost about $40,000, but an enthusiastic and visionary local promoter expanded the original idea, we are informed, and as a result about an $80,000 structure was projected. The building is now about ready for the roof but the promoter has been unable to meet the demands of the contractors for money. Contractor Lannin has undertaken to finish the structure and hopes to recover his losses when the building is finished. S. B Ardrey & Sons, of Bristol, held a $3,-200 contract to place a heating plant, but gave it up, upon the collapse of the financial end of the enterprise.

More Fish for the Delaware.

President Frothingham and the Fish and Game Commissioners of New Jersey will deserve the thanks of all fishermen along the Upper Delaware because of their intention to place a large amount of young stock—black and Oswego bass, croppie and channel cat—in the river this fall, says the Burlington, N. J., Gazette.

This move is timely because of the general belief that young bass are not at present plentiful in the river. Last week the Commissioners borrowed the fish car belonging to the Pennsylvania Commissioners and went to Lake Erie where a car load of young fish will be secured for placing in the Delaware.

Some will be placed in the stream at Port Jarvis, another lot will be turned loose at the Water Gap and the balance at Belvidere and Foul Rift.

Progressive Peanut Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace G. Young entertained a few of their friends to a progressive peanut party at their residence on Dorrance street, Bristol, last Tuesday evening. Prizes were awarded to those gaining the most points as the game progressed. The winners and prizes were: Miss Lizzie Detlefson, imported China mustard cup; James H. Brooks, gold collar button; Mrs. H. H. H. Poole, silver stick pin; George H. Vanzant, ivory paper cutter and mantle ornament.

Refreshments were served from small tables, which were very prettily decorated for the occasion, chrysanthemums being the favorite flower.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brudon, Mr. and Mrs. Horace G. Young, Mr and Mrs. George H. Vanzant, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. H. Poole, Mr. and Mrs. John Niesser, Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. George Callanan, Jr., Mrs. Frank G. Edwards, Mrs. James Stephens, Miss Lizzie Detlefson and James H. Brooks.

Just a nice cosy home for somebody on Jefferson avenue below Pond street. Entirely new. Heater, bathroom with flush closet, gas, underdrained, handsomely papered. Price $1850. It cannot be duplicated. Apply to J. N. DeGroot or Peirce & Williams.

Th easiest way to find a lost collar button is to turn out the gas and look for it in your bare feet.

ANNUAL MEETING BIBLE SOCIETY.

DR. ALISON, OF BRISTOL, ELECTED PRESIDENT —NEXT MEETING AT NEWTOWN—DR. ALISON'S ADDRESS.

The eighty-fourth annual celebration of the Bucks County Bible Society was held in the Reformed and Presbyterian churches, Doylestown, Wednesday afternoon and evening, of last week. A number of delegates who represent the society in the different parts of the county and quite a number of townspeople were present at both sessions.

Rev. George Eastman, of Torresdale, preached the annual sermon. A committee was appointed to draft resolutions on the death of the late Rev. Douglas K. Turner, of Hartsville, who had been connected with the society for a period of thirty-five years, an active member in all its workings, and holding the office of Treasurer for a number of years.

The financial report showed a considerable falling off in the receipts, the reason for the decrease being that on account of the death of the treasurer, members of the Society and others did not know to whom they should send the money.

Rev. J. R. Bergey pastor of the Salem Reformed church, Doylestown, was elected a life member of the State Association.

It was decided to hold the next meeting in the Presbyterian chuch, Newtown, on the first Wednesday in November, 1903, Rev. Robert M. Labaree, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Doylestown, being appointed to preach the annual sermon.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, Dr. Alexander Alison, of Bristol; Vice President, Rev. Robert M. Labaree, of Doylestown; Secretary, Rev. George Eastman, of Torresdale; Treasurer, Rev. Jacob Krewson, of Forest Grove.

The evening session opened with singing, Miss Helen Booz officiating at the organ. After prayer by Rev. Mr. Labaree, the lesson for this service, taken from the 119th Psalm, was read by Rev. J. Riley Bergey, after which Rev. John H. Deming, pastor of the First Baptist church, led in prayer.

Rev. Mr. Labaree, Vice President of the Society, introduced Dr. Alexander Alison, of Bristol, who gave a brief address, taking as his subject, "The Bible." He said in part, that the Bible was a target for abuse in all ages, in all lands, and in every century; that the reason many men do not love the Bible more than they do is because the Bible does not compliment mankind.

The speaker said that we had the very best translation of the Bible at the present day that is possible, and that God had inspired the intellect of the men who had made the translation.

In speaking of inspiration, Rev. Dr. Alison said no thought could exist without words; that to talk of an inspiring thought without the inspiration of words was nonsense. If we speak the English language, we think in English, if we are French, we think in French, if German, we think in that language, showing that thought and words are inseparable.

The speaker deplored the fact that the Bible does not have a regular place in the curriculum of our schools, mentioning that even in China children are taught the history of Jesus Christ, while in our own free land the study of the Bible in the public schools is forbidden.

After singing, Rev. James Morrow, who represents the Pennsylvania section of the American Bible Society, delivered a short address on "Bible Society." He described the workings of the Society in detail, telling of the many trials they encountered in the discharge of their duties and gave many interesting examples of the good work that is being done by this band of laborers for Christ

After singing the meeting adjourned until next year.

The Coal Problem.

The coal trouble has not yet abated although Bristol seems to have fared much better than any other cities of its size. To avoid confusion with the dealers you should either phone or go direct to the office and see that your order is placed on the book in order that you may take your turn when the next car arrives. Stopping the dealer and the drivers on the street often causes your order to be missed. One dealer said his head was not a directory and it was almost impossible for him to reach the post-office without being interrupted many times. Everybody has been served with some coal in Bristol. Half-ton orders as yet seem to be the largest quantity served.

LOCAL MISCELLANY.

The publication of the Bryn Mawr Home News will be continued by the family of the late deceased editor and publisher, Frank A. Hower. Improvements are promised in the near future.

William H. Breece, of Fallsington, was driving through South Trenton on Friday afternoon, when his horses became frightened and ran away. Breece was thrown out and painfully bruised. Breece was able to go to his home the next evening.

Kate Myers, who claimed to reside at Buckingham, Bucks county, was arrested in Philadelphia last week, on the charge of pilfering at a Market street department store, and was put under bail by Magistrate Kochesperger for a further hearing.

The North Penn Gas Company has purchased a lot of ground, 200 by 300 feet, at Fort Washington to establish a plant to supply the towns of Fort Washintgon, Ambler, Penllyn, Gwynedd, North Wales and Lansdale with gas about six months hence.

On account of the opposition of certain interested parties who started a petition against the Perkasie sewer ordinance, Messrs. Shelley, Davis and Sheetz, the promoters, have decided not to proceed with the work, and have withdrawn the ordinance.

The home of Hon. and Mrs. Hampton W. Rice, in Solebury township, was the scene of a pretty November wedding on last Thursday, when their daughter, Miss Marion M. Rice, was united in marriage to George H. Ely, son of 'Squire and Mrs. William M. Ely, also of Solebury. The wedding was performed according to Friends' ceremony. The house was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums. The bride was attended by Miss Bessie Johnson, of Lumberville, and Miss Mary D. Ely, of Solebury, was maid of honor. William Tinsman, of Lumberville, was best man.

Inventories have been filed in the estates of the following decedents: Ann M. Bartolette, late of Bristol borough, $16,990; William Frey, late of Springfield township, $3145.96; Abraham A. Slack, late of Northampton township, $900; Aaron B. Shelly, late of Milford township, $3312.27; Sarah A. Jones, late of Bristol, $528.06; Frederick Goodnow, late of Yardley, $4434.45; Polly Solliday, late of Bedminster, $6655.06; John H. Woodington, late of Warminster, $3653.54; Thomas Morris, late of Bristol, $50; Joseph G. Hendricks, late of Hilltown township, $5085.45; John Griffith, late of Upper Makefield township $424.45; Solomon Herstine, late of Nockamixon, $5540.05.

Mr. Pepper: "I don't believe there was a dry eye in the house when the curtain went down on the third act." Mrs. Pepper: "No; but there seemed to be the usual number of dry throats."

Wife: "And did Mr. Gay say I was positively dove-like?" Husband: "Something of that sort. He said you were pigeon-toed, I believe."

Miss Thirtyodd: "I want to give my fiance a surprise on his birthday. Can't you suggest something" Miss DeFlypp: "Well, you might tell him your age."

CHURCH NOTES

ST. MARK'S ROMAN CATHOLIC.

Rev. William Fitzgeral, who has been assistant to Father M. A. Bunce for the past six months, has been transferred to St. Monica's Parish, Philadelphia, where he will be assistant rector. Father Fitzgeral will be succeeded by Rev. W. Walsh, formerly of Ashland, Pa.

An old-fashioned dance was given last Tuesday evening in the Parochial School Hall by the members of St. Mark's congregation, which was largely attended, and was a success in all particulars.

A Sunday school under the supervision of St. Marks parish, will be established at Eden by Father Bunce for children who live in that vicinity and are unable to conveniently attend at Bristol, by reason of the distance.

ST. JAMES EPISCOPAL.

A devotional service for the "Daughters of the King" of the Protestant Episcopal Church will be held in St. Matthew's Church, Girard avenue and 18th street, Philadelphia, Sunday, November 16, at 10.30 a. m. The annual meeting will be held in the parish house of St. Matthew's Church, Tuesday evening, November 18th. Tea at 6 p. m. Business meeting at 7.30 p. m. Address by the Rt. Rev. Alexander Mackay-Smith, Coadjutor-Bishop of the Diocese. Mrs. Emil Erthal, Mrs. W. H. H. Fine and Miss Mary Douglass are delegates from St. James Church.

The entertainment given by the Sunday School children of St. James Church on Monday evening was a success. The hall was crowded to the door. The following names appeared on the programme: Miss Roberts, Miss Stuart Dorrance and Miss Jessie Wright, the Misses Jeffries, Haggas and Braden, Estelle Wood, Adelia Wright, Marian Lorimer, Mary Bown, Howard Johnson. The entertainment was prepared and given under the direction of the teachers of the Sunday school. Miss Wood accompanied Miss Stuart Dorrance on the piano. The proceeds are for the benefit of the Christmas fund.

The Rev. James O. L. Huntington, Superior of the Order of the Holy Cross, will hold his first service in St. James Church on Friday evening of this week at 7.30 o'clock. On Saturday there will a celebration of the Holy Communion at 7.30 p. m., and a general conference at 4 p. m. On Sunday there will be celebration of the Holy Communion at 7.30 a. m., and at 10.30 a. m., with preaching by Father Huntington. At 2.30 p. m. there will be a service for the children of the parish, and at 7.30 p. m. evening prayer and a sermon by Father Huntington. Special provision has been made for the members and friends at the parish to meet Father Huntington in the choir room from 2 to 4 p. m. on Saturday. Everybody is cordially invited to attend all services.

FIRST BAPTIST.

Young People's meeting on Sunday evening at 6.30. Sunday school at 2.30. Everybody invited.

Regular service on Sunday morning at 10.30 and in the evening at 7.30. In the evening Rev. MacKay expects to give another illustrated sermon on "The Rich Man's Shortcomings." All welcome.

At the regular prayer meeting last evening a donation service was held to aid in foreign missionary work. Several barrels of groceries, dry goods and provisions were placed upon the altar. A large collection was also taken up.

On last Sunday evening Rev. T. J. MacKay, pastor of the First Baptist Chrch, preached a very interesting sermon on "Christ Before Pilate" to a large congregation. The subject was illustrated with a number of beautiful stereopticon views.

A society called the Brotherhood has been formed by the male members of the church and congregation, the object of which organization is to promote interest and sociability among the male members of the church. The first regular meeting will be held in the church parlors on Thursday evening next, November 20, when a full attendance is desired.

METHODIST.

The monthly social of the Epworth League will be held in the parlor of the M. E. Church tomorrow evening.

On next Sunday evening at the M. E. Church the choir will render a special anthem entitled "O Sing Unto the Lord," by J. A. Benson, which will include a soprano solo, obligato and chorus.

PRESBYTERIAN.

Public worship at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. The Rev. Robert M. Labaree, pastor of the Doylestown Presbyterian Church, will exchange pulpits with the pastor. Mr. Labaree will preach at both services.

The Bucks County Sabbath School Annual Convention meets at New Britain, Pa., about three miles from Doylestown on next Saturday. The Rev. Dr. Alison, of Bristol, will be one of the speakers. He will occupy the pulpit of the Doylestown Presbyterian Church on Sunday both morning and evening.

The Commission appointed by the Presbytery last spring to visit the Bristol church, whose findings were made public last May, at the meeting of Presbytery in Doylestown on Tuesday asked for discharge. The request was granted. The Rev. Dr. Alexander Henry, of Frankford, who has been acting as provisional moderator of the session of the Bristol Church, is now released from that position.

Pennsylvania Railroad's Winter Excursion Route Book.

In pursuance of its annual custom, the Passenger Department of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has just issued an attractive and comprehensive book descriptive of the leading Winter resorts of the East and South, and giving the rates and various routes and combinations of routes of travel. Like all the publications of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, this "Winter Excursion Book," is a model of typographical and clerical work. It is bound in a handsome and artistic cover in colors, and contains much valuable information for Winter tourists and travelers in general. It can be had free of charge at the principal ticket offices of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, or will be sent postpaid upon application to Geo. W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

A Good Thing.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A Boschee, a celebrated German physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures coughs, colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cents. Get Green's Special Almanac. At J. Edward Wright's and Emlen Martin's drug stores, Bristol, and E. E. Johnson's, Tullytown.

A large snowdrop—An avalanche.

BUCKS COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY.

DR. E. J GROOM, OF BRISTOL, ELECTED PRESIDENT AT ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Bucks County Medical Society was held in the parlors of the Monument house, Doylestown, on Wednesday, of last week. The attendance was good and the meeting was presided over by Dr. Hellyer, of Penn's Park, and the records were in charge of the Secretary, Dr. Myers. Dr. Felix A. Murphy, of Doylestown, was elected a member.

The following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: President, Dr. Evan J. Groom, of Bristol; Vice Presidents, Drs. C. B. Smith and William S. Erdman; Secretary and Treasurer, Dr. A. F. Myers.

Dr. Hellyer delivered a very able address in retiring from the President's chair. Papers were read by Drs. Kerns, Myers and Coburn, that were freely discussed and some very excellent points elucidated.

Dr. Samuel Wolf, neuologist to the Samaritan Hospital, Philadelphia, delivered a very able lecture upon "Paralysis, its Cause and Management." The subject elicited some excellent remarks from the members. Dr. Wolf was extended a hearty vote of thanks for his excellent address. Drs. Pursell and Richards were chosen a committee to prepare resolutions concerning the death of a late member, Dr. Doughty. By the resolution of the Society, Dr. J. B. Walter, of Solebury was requested to prepare a memorial of the life and career of Dr. Doughty, to be made a page upon the Society's records. Drs. Crewitt and Smith were appointed a committee to arrange a programme for the Newtown meeting in February.

The members present were: Drs. G. M. Grim, Ottsville; J. N. Richards, Fallsington; E. S. Coburn, Plumsteadville; J. B. Cooper, Hatboro; William R. Cooper, Point Pleasant; R. C. Foulke, New Hope; H. A. Hellyer, Penn's Park; C. B. Smith and John A. Crewitt, Newtown; A. B. Shatto, Pineraville; J. W. Shaddinger, Chalfont; Austin O'Connell, Bucksville; William Erdman, Buckingham; A. F. Shot-Gun Prescriptions

We suppose we are not revealing any trade secrets when we say that many medicines are made up on the principle of the so-called "shot-gun prescriptions" which were formerly somewhat in vogue.

The idea of the shot-gun prescriptions was to put into a medicine a large number of different drugs, each useful for different purposes, in the hope that some of them might hit the case.

The most successful physicians we know use a more direct method. The medicine we sell over our own name and guarantee does the same. This medicine is called Vinol. It is the best thing we know for a run-down condition, for nerve troubles, for lung troubles, for weak women, pale children, and old people—in fact, it is a safe, pleasant, reliable tonic and reconstructor.

It is not a scattering "shot-gun prescription," but it goes straight to the mark, and has cured so many people right here in town, that it gives us confidence to sell it on an absolute guarantee, as follows: If you use a bottle and it does not help you, we'll give you your money back without a word of complaint.

We could not afford to guarantee it so boldly if we had not seen it succeed in ninety-eight out of every one hundred cases.

Mail Orders Supplied. $1.00 per Bottle. Express Paid.

EMLEN MARTIN

DRUGGIST.

In the Court of Common Pleas of Bucks County.

NOTICE TO DAVID BROWN, if living, and to the heirs and legal representatives of the said David Brown if dead, and each and every of them, and to all other persons interested in the mortgage hereinafter mentioned.

You are hereby notified that at a Court of Common Pleas holden at Doylestown, in and for the County of Bucks, on the Twentieth day of October, A. D. 1902, BURNET LANDRETH and LEOPOLD LANDRETH presented their petition setting forth that the petitioners as partners trading as D. Landreth & Sons, were the owners in fee of, All that certain messuage or tenement and two contiguous lots or pieces of land, situate in the Township of Bristol, County of Bucks and State of Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows: (Being two contiguous lots of land,) Beginning at the corner of the Turnpike Road and Broad Street near the village of Pine Grove, thence along the said road north 40 degrees east 40 feet to a corner of land of A. E. Laing, thence by the same south 50 degrees east 100 feet to a corner, thence by the same south 40 degrees west 40 feet to the line of the said Broad street, thence along the said street north 50 degrees west 100 feet to the place of beginning.

That the said two contiguous lots or pieces of land hereinabove bounded and described appear by the record to be subject to the following mortgage, to-wit. All that certain indenture of mortgage given and executed by Israel Allen (then the owner of the said above described premises) to Thomas Headly, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of March, A. D. 1843, and duly recorded in the office for the recording of deeds, etc., at Doylestown in and for the County of Bucks in Mortgage Book, No. 19, page 78, etc., to secure the payment of twenty-five hundred dollars, lawful silver money of the United States on the First day of April, A. D. 1844, with interest. The land described in said mortgage being as follows, to-wit: All those two certain messuages or tenements and lots or pieces of land, the first situate in Falls Township, in said County of Bucks, beginning at a stone in the side of the Turnpike Road at a corner of a school lot, thence by said lot south eighty five and a half degrees east twelve and eight-tenths perches to a stone, thence by land of the said Thomas Headly south eighty degrees west fifteen and six-tenths perches to a stone, thence north forty-nine degrees west eighteen and eight-tenths perches to a stone in the side of the said Turnpike Road, thence along the side of the said road north forty-one degrees east six and two-tenths perches to the place of beginning. Containing one acre more or less.

The other (being two contiguous lots of land) situate in Bristol Township, in said county, beginning at the corner of the Turnpike Road and Broad Street near the village of Pine Grove, thence along the said road north forty degrees east forty feet to a corner of land of A. E. Laing, thence by the same south fifty degrees east one hundred feet to a corner, thence by the same south forty degrees west forty feet to the line of the said Broad Street, thence along the said street north fifty degrees west one hundred feet to the place of beginning. The said lots or pieces of land hereinbefore described belonging to your petitioners and which are subject to the lien of the said mortgage are a part of the said land in the said mortgage described, to-wit, the second described premises in said mortgage.

That the said mortgage was duly assigned by Thomas Headly unto John W. Brown, of the Township of Falls aforesaid, by assignment bearing date the second day of April, A. D. 1849, and duly recorded in the office for the recording of deeds, etc., aforesaid, in Mortgage Book No. 38, page 387, etc., and again duly assigned unto David Brown, of the City and County of Philadelphia, in the State aforesaid, by assignment thereon bearing date the first day of April, A. D. 1852, and duly recorded in the office for the recording of deeds, etc., aforesaid, in Mortgage Book No. 38, page 388, etc.

That the petitioners are advised, informed and believe that the said David Brown, the legal holder of the said mortgage by assignment thereof as hereinabove set forth, has long since died, and the names and residence of his heirs and legal representatives are to the petitioners unknown.

That the said mortgage remains unsatisfied of record, but by reason of the lapse of time there exists a legal presumption that the said mortgage is paid.

That no demand has ever been made upon the petitioners at any time, nor upon the preceding owner of the said tracts of land for any part or all of the principal sum of said mortgage or any interest due thereon, and praying the said Court to make an order directing that notice of the facts in this petition set forth be given by advertisement and that upon proof being made of the legal presumption of the payment of the said mortgage to decree and direct satisfaction to be entered upon the record of the said mortgage hereinbefore mentioned upon the payment of the proper costs and charges therefor, and that such satisfaction shall forever thereafter discharge, defeat and release said mortgage and forever bar and exclude all actions brought or to be brought thereon, and do such other things as are directed by the Act of Assembly in such case made and provided.

Whereupon, eo die, the said Court made the following order: And now to-wit, October 20th A. D. 1902, the within petition having been presented and read in open Court, it is hereby ordered and decreed: That B. Frank Hobensack, High Sheriff of the County of Bucks aforesaid, be and is hereby directed to serve notice of the facts set forth in the above-mentioned and hereto attached petition upon David Brown, the legal holder of the mortgage in said petition mentioned, if he be living, and upon the heirs and legal representatives of said David Brown if he be dead, and each and every of them, and all other parties in interest in said mortgage, if any, if they can be found in the County of Bucks, and in case all of the said parties cannot be found in said county then the said Sheriff be and is hereby directed to give public notice of the said facts set forth in said petition in the BUCKS COUNTY GAZETTE a weekly newspaper published within the said County of Bucks, once a week for four weeks successively prior to the then next term of said Court to be holden at Doylestown, in and for the said County of Bucks, on the seventeenth day of November, A. D. 1902, requiring all of the said parties to be and appear at the said term of said Court at eleven o'clock a. m. on the seventeenth day of November, A. D. 1902, to answer the said petition and show cause if any they may have why satisfaction of the said mortgage shall not be decreed by the Court according to the Act of Assembly in such case made and provided.

MAN-O'-WAR HAWKS.

Feathered Highwaymen That Do Their Fishing In the Air.

The man-o'-war hawk is a somewhat large bird and an expert fisher, but he does most of his fishing in the air. When the booby bird comes home from abroad, he finds the man-o'-war hawk "layin' for him," and, however persistently he may seek to escape by dashing flight, with much screeching and screaming, he finds that before he can safely set foot on the land he must disgorge a fish or two, which the swift pursuer adroitly catches in the air. It seems, however, to be generally understood as a modus vivendi between the fisher and the pirate birds that their contentions were only on the wing and that once on land they should dwell peacefully in their separate camping grounds.

The boobies are awkward and unwieldy on land and may be easily captured. They rarely seek to escape when a man approaches; but, accustomed to meet the demands of their familiar enemy, the man-o'-war hawk, by disgorging a fish in the air, they frequently resort to the same process and lay at the feet of the intruding stranger what stock of fish they have available. The man o'-war hawks turned this practice to their own advantage by following after any man who might appear among the nesting birds, circling in the air just overhead, ready to pick up the fish which the frightened boobies might give up as a peace offering. The man o'-war hawks were generally eager for anything and would hover closely, ready to take from the hand of a man whatever he might toss in the air. On one occasion one of these birds swiftly snatched a notebook which lay for a moment on the ground and sailed away, dropping it, however, on finding it to be neither fish nor rat.—Century Magazine.

His Particular Want.

In a certain Sunday school the subject of the lesson was the condition of man in Eden. On a large leaf suspended in the room were named certain gifts with which God had blessed man. Among these was mentioned the giving of a wife. The pastor in some remarks to the children tried to show that man needed company.

"If," said he, "you had a dog at home or a playful kitten or a beautiful song bird, would that be all you would want?"

They agreed that it would not.

"What more would you want?" he asked, expecting that they would answer father, mother, brothers or sisters. After a pause a little fellow about three years old, with a thin, soft voice, spoke up:

"A wife."

The school broke into laughter, the pastor maintained his gravity with difficulty, and the superintendent disappeared to vent his feelings where he would not be observed.—New York Times.

The Odor of Death.

A London physician of large practice asserts that owing to his extremely sensitive sense of smell he can foretell the coming of death forty-eight hours. He says that when a patient comes within two days of death a peculiar earthy smell is emitted from the body. When the fatal disease is slow in its progress, the odor makes its appearance as much as three days beforehand, but when the disease is of the galloping kind the doctor says he receives much shorter warning. He attributes the smell to mortification, which begins within the body before life is extinct.

Dogs are thought to have this sense, for hunting hounds have been observed to begin a mournful baying a day or two before their masters died.

TWO CASES OF TYPHUS.

Story of a Turkish Doctor and a Modified Prescription.

Mr. Oscanyan in his book, "The Sultan and His People," says that a Turkish physician was called to visit a man who was very ill of typhus fever. The doctor considered the case hopeless, but prescribed for the patient and took his leave. The next day, in passing by, he inquired of a servant at the door if his master was dead.

"Dead!" was the reply. "No, he is much better."

The doctor hastened upstairs to obtain the solution of the miracle.

"Why," said the convalescent, "I was consumed with thirst, and I drank a pailful of the juice of pickled cabbage."

"Wonderful!" quoth the doctor, and out came the tablets, on which he made this inscription: "Cured of typhus fever, Mehemed Agha, an upholsterer, by drinking a pailful of pickled cabbage juice."

Soon after the doctor was called to another patient, a yaghlikgee, or dealer in embroidered handkerchiefs, who was suffering from the same malady. He forthwith prescribed "a pailful of pickled cabbage juice."

On calling the next day to congratulate his patient on his recovery he was astonished to be told that the man was dead.

In his bewilderment at these phenomena he came to the safe conclusion and duly noted it in his memoranda that "although in cases of typhus fever pickled cabbage juice is an efficient remedy it is not to be used unless the patient be by profession an upholsterer."

A Poor Compliment.

"People don't often insult you when they mean to be gracious," said an artist the other day. "Insults are the creations of ill nature and not mere matters of words. But I had an experience that made me laugh and yet irritated me."

"Somebody take one of your snow scenes for a spring landscape?" inquired an amiable friend.

"No," replied the artist; "this was not a matter of professional pride. A tradesman sent me a bill in which he unintentionally charged me only about a third of what I owed him."

"Thought he stood a better chance of getting it, I suppose," interrupted the facetious friend.

"Now, hold on, Billy, and let me tell the story. Well, that was the second time he had sent a bill for less than I owed, and I wrote him a note calling his attention to the error. This morning I got a letter from him in which he 'thanked me for my honesty.' A man may thank you for your courtesy or for your kindness, but when he thanks you for being honest it is an insult. One might as well praise a man for not beating his wife."

An Optimistic View.

The invalid looked out of the window just as a hearse went by, and he smiled happily.

"D'ye mind, Biddy," he said, "it's worth the dyin' to have a ride in a thing like that, with the feathers on top an' a man with a bug on his hat, an' you bein' gr-reater an' more nicissary than the marshal iv a St. Pathrick's day parade. There's wanst in ye're life ye're the whole thing, an' that's whin ye're dead."—Chicago Post.

CHILL WINDS

Are the dread of those whose lungs are "weak." Some fortunate people can follow the summer as it goes southward, and escape the cold blasts of winter and the chill airs of spring. But for the majority of people this is impossible.

Family cares and business obligations hold them fast.

"Weak" lungs are made strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures the obstinate cough, heals the inflamed tissues, stops the hemorrhage, and restores the lost flesh to the emaciated body.

"I am a railroad agent," writes I. B. Staples, Esq., of Barclay, Osage Co., Kans., "and four years ago my work keeping me in a warm room and stepping out frequently into the cold air gave me bronchitis, which became chronic and deep seated. Doctors failed to reach my case and advised me to try a higher air, but, fortunately for me, a friend also advised me to try Dr. Pierce's medicines. I commenced taking your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and by the time I had taken the first bottle I was better, and after taking about four bottles my cough was entirely gone. I have found no necessity for seeking another climate."

Sometimes a dealer, tempted by the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines, will offer the customer a substitute as being "just as good" as the "Discovery."

You get the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, the best medical work ever published, free by sending stamps, to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound volume, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Soil Was Not Congenial.

It was Aunt Rebecca's first visit to her niece, a city girl who had married a few years before and begun housekeeping in a pretty town in southern Michigan.

"Myrtle," she said, looking out of the kitchen window one morning, "you have a fine patch of ground here that seems to be going to waste. Why don't you plant peach trees? They grow beautifully in this climate."

"No, aunty," replied the young wife; "the soil is too poor. I have tried it. You remember those canned peaches you sent me year before last? They were the finest I ever saw—finer than any that grow here. Well, I saved the stones, and, without saying anything to Robert about it, I planted them out there in the yard, but not one of them ever came up—not a single one!"

The Royal Color.

Purple has always been considered the royal color. The ill fated Charles I. was, however, at his own desire, crowned in a robe of white. Although he was seriously reminded that of the two exceptions to this rule, Richard II. and Henry VI., who wore white satin robes at their coronations, both had come to a violent end, one at Pontefract castle and one in the Tower, Charles I. was resolute in his decision, and, when, twenty-three years afterward, almost to a day, his body was conveyed to its grave through a heavy snowstorm, the superstitious could not help remarking that the third "white king" had suffered a violent death.—St. James Gazette.

A Violent Attack of Croup Cured.

"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist, of Filley, Mo. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by Emlen Martin, druggist.

Jumped on a Ten Penny Nail.

The little daughter of Mr. J. N. Powell jumped on an inverted rake made of ten penny nails, and thrust one nail entirely through her foot and a second one half way through. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was promptly applied and five minutes later the pain had disappeared and no more suffering was experienced. In three days the child was wearing her shoe as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. Mr. Powell is a well known merchant of Forkland, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and heals such injuries without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. For sale by Emlen Martin, druggist.

To the Public.

Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I can recommend it with the utmost confidence. It has done good work for me and will do the same for others. I had a very severe cough and cold and feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of this medicine I felt better, three bottles of it cured my cold and the pains in my chest disappeared entirely. I am most respectfully yours for health, RALPH S. MEYERS, No. 64 Thirty-seventh street, Wheeling, W. Va. For sale by Emlen Martin, druggist.

The Best Remedy for Diarrhoea.

"Some years ago while at Martinsburg, W. Va., I was taken with cholera morbus, which was followed by diarrhoea. The doctor's medicine did me no good. I was advised to get a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I did, and it cured me sound and well. G. A. MORRIS, Embreeville, Pa. For sale by Emlen Martin, druggist.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages.

Ely's Cream Balm

cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents.
